During the roundup, in Bear Canyon, off Dry Creek, he found the remains of a big bear and a big bull, indications being that they had killed each other in a fight. Likely got to scrapping over the financial news.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The services at the Episcopal church on Sunday in honor of Memorial day were very impressive, the solemn ritual of the Episcopal service and the beautiful singing of the choir being in keeping with the occasion.

The Memorial sermon by the Rev. H. H. Gillies, rector of the church, was listened to with great attention by the large audience present. The rector took for his subject, "Faith," and proved that faith is essential in all matters, both spiritual and temporal. He also emphasized the fact that we should not only honor and reverence those who gave up their lives for their country, but that we should also hold in honor and reverence those who were spared the supreme sacrifice and lived to return to their homes and friends, remembering that they were equally willing to give of their all.

YAVAPAI CO. LANDS LARGE GRANT OF FOREST FUNDS

The county highway commission has secured federal forest aid on four county highway projects—the Camp Verde to Fossil creek, the Yarnell, the Mingus mountain, and the Senator roads. The specific appropriations are as follows: For the Fossil creek road, $50,000; for the Yarnell road, $145,000; for the Senator road, $145,000; for the Mingus mountain, $90,000. Much credit for the Senator grant is due to Miss Grace Sparkes of the Yavapai County Chamber of Commerce, who has worked hard and faithfully in the matter and who was aided largely by Forest Supervisor Basil Wales.

The entire appropriation for the state is $484,000, so that Yavapai received its full share. The amounts mentioned would be more than the just share of the county, but the forest service realizes that this district has had less federal aid than almost any other in the state.—Jerome News.

WILLIAMS COUNCILMEN ELECT

The following new councilmen on the Citizens' ticket were elected at Williams:

P. A. Melick	223

PROFESSOR WALKER GOES TO UNIVERSITY THIS FALL

Professor J. F. Walker, vice-president of the Normal school and director of the Normal training school, will take a year's leave of absence at the end of the summer school session. It is authoritatively reported, and it will spend it either at Leland Stanford or Columbia University, taking advanced work. His many friends here and the students will regret exceedingly the absence of his kindly presence for twelve months and will be glad when it is time for him to come back again.

SNAPPY VAUDEVILLE FEAT-URES COME TO ORPHEUM THEATER MONDAY NIGHT

The current vaudeville road show which comes to this popular house regularly each week is fast snappy comedy, which has no trouble in entertaining. Hyland, Grant and Hyland, vaudeville's versatile three, in a fast novelty offering of song and dance, with a goodly sprinkling of clever comedy, should prove a solid hit. Fields and Brown, in original comedy songs and eccentric dancing will delight the auditors. This clever team of artists are hard workers, with worlds of personality and pep. George La Shay, "A Musical Treat," brings a cleverly presented musical cycle and treat to music lovers and comedy fans. Kipp and Kippy, comedy jugglers and manipulators, round out the well-balanced and entertaining bill of high-class vaudeville.

MEN'S CLOTHING MERCHANTS WANT TO CLOSE SUNDAYS

A movement is on foot to get an agreement among the merchants who sell men's furnishings to remain closed all day each Sunday. Most of those concerned feel that they are entitled to rest from business on that day and that the convenience of the public does not demand that they open their stores. The tendency toward Sunday closing is becoming more prevalent among all classes of merchants, and the idea is right, for it gives them time for relaxation and out-door recreation.

MINE STOPE CAVES NEAR BISBEE KILLING TWO MEN

J. L. Regan, 25, and Ely Vutsanovich, 55, miners, were killed early Tuesday morning by a cave-in at the Southwest mine here. Regan's body was recovered a few minutes after the crash.

The cave-in was one of the worst in the history of local copper mines. Vutsanovich and Regan had just entered the stope when with a terrific roar, heard in every mine here, the ground gave way. Regan, a member of the Bisbee baseball team, apparently ran toward an opening at the first crackle of the big timbers in the stope. He was caught and crushed just as he was a few feet from safety,
